To all the good men and women of the SEC

We received your letter date December 1, 2022 with regards to the above mentioned you have additional comment on our latest 10-KT filing:

Form 10-KT for the Transition Period Ended December 31, 2021

SEC question 1:

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures, page 18

1. Please disclose the conclusions of your principal executive officer and principal financial officer regarding the effectiveness of your disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Refer to Item 307 of Regulation S-K.

AsiaFIN Response:

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this Report, our management carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in the Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)). Based on the foregoing evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that, as of December 31, 2021, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective at the reasonable assurance level due to the material weaknesses described below.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. Internal control over financial reporting is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) or 15d-15(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act as a process designed by, or under the supervision of, the company's principal executive and principal financial officers and effected by the company's board of directors, management and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and includes those policies and procedures that:

- Pertain to the maintenance of records that in reasonable detail accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;

- Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. All internal control systems, no matter how well designed, have inherent limitations. Therefore, even those systems determined to be effective can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to financial statement preparation and presentation. Because of the inherent limitations of internal control, there is a risk that material misstatements may not be prevented or detected on a timely basis by internal control over financial reporting. However, these inherent limitations are known features of the financial reporting process. Therefore, it is possible to design into the process safeguards to reduce, though not eliminate, this risk.

As of December 31, 2021, our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting based on the criteria for effective internal control over financial reporting established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (“COSO”) and SEC guidance on conducting such assessments. Based on such evaluation, the Company's management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, concluded that, during the period covered by this Report, internal controls over financial reporting were not effective. This was due to deficiencies that existed in the design or operation of our internal controls over financial reporting that adversely affected our internal controls and that may be considered to be material weaknesses.

Identified Material Weakness

A material weakness in internal control over financial reporting is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected.

Our Management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, identified the following material weakness during its assessment of internal controls over financial reporting as of December 31, 2021:

1. We do not have adequate resources on finance personnel - Insufficient full-time personnel with appropriate levels of accounting knowledge and experience to monitor the daily recording of transactions, address accounting issues and to prepare and review financial statements and submit SEC filing related documents.
2. We do not have adequate segregation of duties and effective risk assessment – Lack of segregation of duties and effective risk assessment may cause the Company to face the likelihood of fraud or theft, due to poor oversight, governance and review to detect errors.

Accordingly, the Company concluded that these control deficiencies resulted in a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis by the company's internal controls.

Management's Remediation Initiatives

To further strengthen the Company's internal controls, we plan to initiate the following measures going forward:

1. We intend to add staff members to our management team for making sure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed and submitted under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported as and when required and will the staff members will have segregated responsibilities with regard to these responsibilities.
 2. We plan to create a position to segregate duties consistent with control objectives and will increase our personnel resources and technical accounting expertise within the accounting function. The accounting personnel is responsible for reviewing the financing activities, facilitate the approval of the financing, record the information regarding the financing, and submit SEC filing related documents to our legal counsel in order to comply with the filing requirements of SEC.

We created a position of finance manager and appointed our finance manager on September 1, 2021.

We anticipate that the rest of initiatives will be at least partially, if not fully, implemented by the end of fiscal year 2021.

Changes in internal controls over financial reporting

There was no significant change in our internal controls over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this Report, which has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal controls over financial reporting:

This annual report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered independent public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered independent public accounting firm pursuant to rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this Annual Report on Form 10-KT.

SEC question 2:

Signatures, page 27

2. Please ensure that your Forms 10-K are signed by the registrant, and on behalf of the registrant by its principal executive officer, its principal financial officer, its controller or principal accounting officer, and by at least the majority of the board of directors. Any person who occupies more than one of the specified positions shall indicate each capacity in which he signs the report. Refer to General Instruction D(2) of Form 10-K. Similarly ensure that your Forms 10-Q are signed on your behalf by a duly authorized officer and by your principal financial officer or your chief accounting officer. Refer to General Instruction E of Form 10-Q. Also, ensure that your Forms 10-K and 10-Q include under Exhibits 31 and 32 the required certifications from both your principal executive officer and your principal financial officer. Refer to Item 601(b)(31) and (32) of Regulation S-K and Rules 15d-14(a) and (b) of the Exchange Act.

AsiaFIN Response:

Our filing was signed by our board of directors rather than principal executive and principal financial officers as per Item 307 of Regulation S-K. The signing was disregarded due to our principal financial officer only came onboard in September 2021, and we have been following the same format on signatures even though the internal control on financial reporting procedures has been in place.

We assure compliance to Item 307 of Regulation S-K, on signing by principal executive and principal financial officer for all future filing. We filed sample of signatures for all future filing for 10K and 10Q as Exhibit A to this letter for your reference.

You may contact me if you require further information. Thank you and sorry for the inconvenience caused.
